Contents

FOREWORD 3

ACRONYMS 7

KEY FINDINGS AND FRA OPINIONS 9

INTRODUCTION 11

1 DEVELOPMENT OF A RIGHTS-BASED CONCEPT OF CRIME VICTIMISATION 15

1.1 The victim as a witness 15

1.2 The victim as a civil party 16

1.3 The victim as a vulnerable witness harmed by the offence 16

1.4 The victim as wronged by the offence and as entitled to justice 17

1.5 The victim of a violent crime acting as a party to the proceedings 19

1.6 The development of victims' rights in EU secondary legislation 21

1.7 Overview 24

2 VICTIMS' RIGHTS AND STATES' OBLIGATIONS: A HUMAN RIGHTS VIEW ON THE POSITION OF THE VICTIM IN THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM 25

2.1 Rights of victims of violent crime under the ECHR 25

2.2 Rights of victims of violent crime under the Charter 31

3 HOW NATIONAL LEGISLATION CONCEPTUALISES VICTIMS OF VIOLENT CRIME: THREE APPROACHES ... 37

3.1 Type 1: Rights-based approaches and comprehensive participation rights 37

3.2 Type 2: Needs-based approaches 41

3.3 Type 3: The civil law-based civil party system 42

3.4 Overview of the three types of victim concepts 42

REFERENCES 44