

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	9
I. Background of these Guidelines	9
II. The purpose of these Guidelines	10
III. The structure of this document	12
IV. Scope of these Guidelines	14
INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE USE OF FORCE AND FIREARMS	17
I. Legality (legal basis)	17
II. Necessity	18
III. Proportionality	18
IV. Accountability	19
V. Conclusion	20
DEFINITION OF TERMS	21
STANDARDS CITED AND ABBREVIATIONS USED	25
PART ONE GUIDELINES FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE UN BASIC PRINCIPLES ON THE USE OF FORCE AND FIREARMS BY LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS	29
PART TWO EXPLANATORY TEXT	41
SECTION A REQUIREMENTS OF THE DOMESTIC LEGAL FRAMEWORK	43
 1 THE USE OF FORCE IN GENERAL	45
1.1 The power to use force (principle of legality)	46
1.2 The need to resort to force and minimum force (principle of necessity)	47
1.3 Prohibition of excessive harm (principle of proportionality)	49
 2 LETHAL FORCE	51
2.1 The “protect-life”-principle	53
2.2 Definition of firearm	54
2.3 Threshold for the use of firearms	54
2.3.1 Potentially lethal use of a firearm	55
2.3.2 Intentional lethal use of a firearm	59
2.4 Other forms of lethal force	61
2.5 Protection of third persons	61
2.6 Warning	62
 3 ACCOUNTABILITY	63
3.1 Introduction	65
3.2 Criminal investigation process	66

3.2.1	Criminal liability: no exemption	66
3.2.2	Unlawful orders by superior: no defence	68
3.2.3	Responsibility of commanding and superior officers	69
3.2.4	Conduct of criminal investigations	71
3.2.5	Penalties	74
3.3	Disciplinary investigation	75
3.3.1	Purpose and conduct of the investigation	75
3.3.2	Penalties and other measures	76
3.4	Independent, impartial external oversight	76
3.4.1	Purpose	76
3.4.2	Mandate and powers	77
3.5	Reporting and control	79
3.5.1	Reporting	79
3.5.2	Other control measures:
	Identification of law enforcement officials/body-worn cameras	80
3.6	Victims' rights	82
3.6.1	Medical assistance and notification of family or friends	82
3.6.2	The right to complain and to be involved in the proceedings	83
3.6.3	Compensation/Reparation	84
	CONCLUDING REMARKS ON SECTION A	85
	SECTION B THE OPERATIONAL FRAMEWORK	87
 4 	THE GENERAL CONCEPT OF THE USE OF FORCE	89
4.1	General considerations	91
4.2	Overarching principle: avoid the need to resort to the use of force	93
4.3	Element of precaution and decision making	95
4.3.1	Planning and preparation	95
4.3.2	Equipment	97
4.3.3	Time and place of intervention	98
4.3.4	Protection of groups or persons at risk	100
4.3.5	Protection of third persons	101
4.3.6	Medical attention and other life saving measures	101
4.4	Differentiated response and minimize damage	102
4.5	Proportionality: retreat must be an option	105
 5 	THE USE OF LETHAL FORCE, IN PARTICULAR THE USE OF FIREARMS	107
5.1	When to use a firearm	110
5.1.1	Definition of "use of a firearm"	110
5.1.2	Reaffirmation of the "protect-life"-principle	111
5.2	Warnings to be given	113
5.3	How to use a firearm	115
5.4	Protection of third persons	118
5.5	Types of weapons and ammunition	120
5.6	Who may use a firearm: authorization, certification, training	123
5.6.1	Authorization of firearms for different law enforcement duties	123
5.6.2	Certification and training	124
5.7	Control and reporting	126

 6 	LESS LETHAL WEAPONS: TESTING AND DEPLOYMENT	131
6.1	Terminology and scope of this chapter	132
6.2	Decision making process	133
6.2.1	Definition of operational needs and gaps	134
6.2.2	Testing	135
6.3	Instructions	140
6.4	Training	142
6.5	Piloting, re-evaluation and reporting	144
 7 	USE OF FORCE IN PUBLIC ASSEMBLIES	147
7.1	General concept: facilitation and dialogue	149
7.2	Unlawful assemblies	152
7.3	Dealing with violence	153
7.4	Tactical options and limits	155
7.4.1	Containment	155
7.4.2	Less lethal weapons	157
7.4.3	Firearms	159
7.4.4	Deployment of military forces	160
7.5	Reporting, accountability and lessons learned	161
 8 	USE OF FORCE IN DETENTION	163
8.1.	General concept	165
8.2	Means of restraint	167
8.3	Use of firearms	169
8.4	Dealing with large-scale violent disorder in detention facilities	170
 9 	HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT	171
9.1	Selection	172
9.2	Training	173
9.2.1	Physical training and use of equipment	174
9.2.2	Communication skills	175
9.2.3	Risk assessment and decision making	176
9.2.4	Mental training and stress management	176
9.2.5	First aid training	176
9.2.6	Concluding remarks on training	177
9.3	Coaching and counselling	178
 10 	SUPERIOR AND COMMAND RESPONSIBILITY	179
10.1	General considerations	180
10.2	Chain of command	181
10.3	Reporting, supervision and control	182
	CONCLUDING REMARKS ON SECTION B	188
	SECTION C FINAL RECOMMENDATIONS	189
	ANNEX I – BASIC PRINCIPLES (BPUFF)	191
	ANNEX II – REFERENCE LIST	195