

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
PREFACE	7
INTRODUCTION	11
SECTION I: YOUNG PEOPLE IN DANGER: NEEDS AND PRE-VENTION	15
1.1 Development of young people and their needs	15
1.1.1 The youngster's own tasks	15
1.1.2 Factors affecting the youngster's experience	16
1.1.3 Possible problems	18
1.1.4 Some basic needs	18
1.1.5 The responsibilities of adult society	19
1.1.6 Specific challenges for society	20
1.1.7 The contribution of prevention	21
SECTION II: SOCIAL PROTECTION SYSTEMS FOR YOUTH IN DANGER	25
2.1 Description of existing social protection systems	25
2.1.1 Types of organisation	25
2.1.2 Characteristics	29
2.1.3 Powers	31
2.1.4 Beneficiaries	34
2.2 Social protection systems — Means and Methods	36
2.2.1 Resources	36
2.2.2 Intervention methods in individual cases	39
2.2.3 Collective preventive measures	39
2.3 Collaboration between specific official services for the protection of youth and other services	42
2.4 Users' participation and rights	49
2.4.1 General guarantee/Protection of rights	50
2.4.2 Representation / Consultation / Information / Participation in respect of the individual case	50

2.4.3 User groups	51
2.4.4 Participation in service provision/management	51
2.5 Evaluation and its mechanisms	52
SECTION III: COMMENTARY AND PROPOSALS BY THE STUDY GROUP	57
3.1 Society and young people	57
3.1.1 Angst in the midst of plenty	57
3.1.2 Poverty in the midst of plenty	58
3.1.3 Emerging issues in the nineties	58
3.1.4 Young people with serious personal problems	58
3.1.5 Young people and wider social problems	60
3.2 Organisation of services	62
3.2.1 Prevention	62
3.2.2 Supporting parents and families	63
3.2.3 Inter-agency/system collaboration	63
3.2.4 Partnership between professionals and volunteers	65
3.2.5 Promoting the rights of users	65
3.2.6 Combatting the risk of sexism in provision	67
3.2.7 The role of information technology in social protection ...	67
3.2.8 Evaluation	67
3.3 The role of public authorities in member countries and of the Council of Europe	69
3.3.1 Legislative framework	69
3.3.2 Funding	69
3.3.3 Service development	69
3.3.4 Planning	69
3.3.5 Data gathering	70
3.3.6 Inter-system/service collaboration	70
3.4 Conclusion	71