

Contents

FOREWORD	3
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY	7
INTRODUCTION	11
1 INTERNATIONAL AND EUROPEAN LEGAL FRAMEWORK RELATING TO GUARDIANSHIP	15
1.1. European Union	15
1.2. Council of Europe	16
1.3. United Nations	17
1.4. Legal instruments clarifying which Member State has guardianship responsibilities	18
2 GUARDIANSHIP SYSTEMS IN EU MEMBER STATES	21
2.1. Lack of a uniform approach	21
2.2. Institutions or individual persons acting as guardians	23
2.3. Central or local guardianship authority	27
2.4. Independence of guardianship and legal representation systems	28
2.5. Employment status of guardians	30
2.6. Guardianship systems for unaccompanied children	32
2.7. Special considerations for child victims of trafficking	35
Key findings	36
3 KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS OF GUARDIANS	39
3.1. Qualifications required to become a guardian	39
3.2. Vetting procedures	40
3.3. Training	41
3.4. Supervision and support	43
Key findings	44
4 APPOINTMENT PROCEDURES	45
4.1. Referral mechanism for child victims of human trafficking	46
4.2. Time of appointment and length of procedures	46
4.3. Temporary arrangements	47
4.4. Accountability and oversight mechanisms	48
Key findings	50
5 TASKS OF A GUARDIAN	53
5.1. National provisions defining a guardian's tasks	53
5.2. Well-being of the child	54
5.3. Need assessment and care plans	55
5.4. Durable solutions for unaccompanied children	56
5.5. Legal representation	56
5.6. Legal representation of child victims of trafficking in criminal proceedings and legal aid	58
Key findings	59
CONCLUSIONS	61
REFERENCES	63
ANNEX	67