

Contents

| | |
|---|----------|
| Introduction | 7 |
| Part I – Synthesis of policies on irregular migrants | |
| 1. Objectives of the research programme | 11 |
| 2. Summary of the methodologies from each of the reports | 12 |
| 3. Short description of patterns of irregular migration | 12 |
| 4. Summary of how each country addresses the issue of irregular migration | 14 |
| 5. Analysis of common approaches to regularisation that have emerged from the reports | 18 |
| 6. Analysis of the perceived effectiveness of regularisation policies in the participating countries | 19 |
| 7. Short analysis of the impact of regularisation policies on irregular migration flows | 21 |
| 8. What lessons can be learned from the five national policies? | 22 |
| 9. Recommendations for future actions | 23 |
| Part II – Italian policy on irregular migrants in the labour market and the shadow economy | |
| by Laura Zanfrini | |
| Executive summary | 29 |
| 1. Short analysis of irregular migration | 30 |
| 1.1. Basic information on irregular migrants | 30 |
| 1.2. Rationale for adoption of the specific policy | 36 |
| 1.3. Immigration regulations in force and how these are applied in practice..... | 38 |

Policies on irregular migrants

| | |
|---|----|
| 1.4. Possible root causes of irregular migration and why people choose it | 43 |
| 2. Main characteristics of the specific policy | 48 |
| 2.1. Main objectives and components | 48 |
| 2.2. Implementation of the policy | 51 |
| 3. The impact of specific new policies on irregular migration and migrants..... | 57 |
| 3.1. Assessment of results against objectives: positive and negative aspects | 57 |
| 3.2. Lessons learned and proposals for the future | 63 |
| 4. Summary and conclusions | 65 |

Part III – The legal situation of irregular migrants in Germany and their access to social rights

by Winfried Kluth

| | |
|--|-----|
| Executive summary | 71 |
| 1. The phenomenon of irregular migration | 72 |
| 1.1. Basic information on irregular migrants | 72 |
| 1.1.1. Data sources | 72 |
| 1.1.2. Size of illegally resident population | 72 |
| 1.2. Immigration regulations in force | 74 |
| 1.3. Rationale for adoption of specific policy | 79 |
| 1.4. Possible root causes of irregular migration and why people choose it | 87 |
| 2. German legislation on social rights of irregular migrants..... | 91 |
| 2.1. Main objectives and components | 91 |
| 2.1.1. Access to public health care | 91 |
| 2.1.2. School attendance | 93 |
| 2.1.3. Employment of illegally resident migrants | 94 |
| 2.1.4. Internal controls by the obligation to inform | 95 |
| 2.1.5. Controls on the labour market | 96 |
| 2.2. Implementation and change of policy | 99 |
| 3. Evaluation | 101 |

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| 3.1. Proposal for limited legalisation (beschränkte Bleiberechtsregelung) | 101 |
| 3.1.1. Group of persons involved | 101 |
| 3.1.2. Arguments for a rule of legalisation..... | 103 |
| 3.1.3. Arguments against a rule of legalisation..... | 104 |
| 3.1.4. Options for a rule of legalisation | 104 |
| 3.1.5. Recent decision for a rule of legalisation | 105 |
| 4. Recommendations | 108 |
| References | 111 |