

CONTENTS

SUMMARY	ix
<hr/>
1: THIRD AGE CARERS – WHO THEY ARE AND WHO THEY CARE FOR	1
1.1 Introduction	1
1.2 Data and Methods	1
1.2.1 Definition of carers in the General Household Survey	2
1.3 Results	3
1.3.1 Numbers of carers and third agers' contribution to caring	3
1.3.2 Demographic differences in the provision of informal care	3
1.3.3 Relationships between carer and 'dependant'	4
1.3.4 Socio-economic differences in the provision of informal care	5
1.3.5 Employment status	5
1.4 Summary	6
Tables	7
Figure	17
<hr/>
2: THE PROBLEMS AND REWARDS OF CARING IN THE THIRD AGE	18
2.1 Introduction	18
2.2 The Experience of Caring	19
2.2.1 For single people looking after a parent	19
2.2.2 For married people looking after a parent or parent-in-law	19
2.2.3 For married people looking after their spouse	19
2.2.4 For people looking after a dependent adult child	19
2.3 Approaches to Assessing Problems and Rewards of Caring	20
2.4 Effects on Physical Health	21
2.5 Effects on Mental Health/Emotional Well-Being	22
2.6 Effects on Self/Personality/Outlook	25
2.7 Effects on Family Relationships	27
2.8 Effects on Other Activities	29
2.9 Conclusions	30
Tables	32
<hr/>
3: THE FINANCIAL COSTS OF CARING	33
3.1 Introduction	33
3.2 Measuring the Costs of Caring	34
3.3 The Duration of Caring	35
3.4 The Impact of Caring on Employment	36
3.4.1 Employment patterns amongst carers	36
3.4.2 Difficulties in returning to work, loss of career prospects and diminished pension rights	39
3.4.3 Loss of earnings and costs of substitute care	40

3.5	The Costs of Disability	41
3.5.1	What the costs are	41
3.5.2	Costs to the carer of disability	42
3.6	The Incomes of Carers and Dependants	43
3.6.1	Sources of Income	43
3.6.2	Individual incomes of carers	44
3.6.3	Individual incomes of dependants	46
3.6.4	Household Incomes	46
3.7	Financial Problems of Caring	47
3.7.1	Do carers suffer financially?	47
3.7.2	Longer term consequences of caring	49
3.7.3	Carers' views	50
3.8	Summary and Conclusion	51
	Tables	52
	Figures	66
	Appendix	70
	Table 3A.1	73
	Table 3A.2	74
<hr/>
4:	FUTURE PROSPECTS	75
4.1	Summary of Main Findings	75
4.2	Future Trends	75
4.3	Some Areas of Concern and Policy Options	77
4.3.1	Is caring a matter for public policy?	77
4.3.2	Help for carer and not others?	77
4.3.3	If caring is to be the subject of state intervention, what sort of intervention should it be?	77
4.3.4	If extra help is given to carers, how would it cost and how would it be paid for?	80
4.3.5	Different groups of carers	80
4.3.6	What may happen in the more distant future	81
	Table	83
<hr/>
	REFERENCES	84