

CONTENTS

Part I – Foundational concepts of the commons and future generations: identity, property and participatory democracy 7

Future generations now! A commons-based analysis by Ugo Mattei..... 9

In whose name do we act?
by Salvatore Settis..... 27

Who is the subject of the commons for future generations?
An essay in genealogy
by Michele Spanò 45

Property and deliberation: a new type of common ownership by Anna Di Robilant..... 61

Co-operating for the future: inspiration from the European past to develop public–collective partnerships and transgenerational co-operatives by Tine De Moor 81

Part II – Rights of future generations to the commons..... 105

The architecture of commons legal institutions for future generations
by Saki Bailey..... 107

In the name of the children: if the law had the duty to think of the future
by Gustavo Zagrebelsky 141

Representing the “unrepresentable”? Recognising the rights of future generations, nature and the issue of legal standing by Héloïse Miereanu 147

Establishing commons trusts to manage common assets for future generations by Burns H. Weston and David Bollier	169
--	-----

Access to nature and intergenerational justice by Filippo Valguarnera	189
---	-----

Part III – Creating institutions of the commons for future generations

215

Common goods in urbanised societies by Gilda Farrell	217
--	-----

Co-banking: finance for the future generations by Andrea Baranes	239
--	-----

Commons and commonification of public services by Tommaso Fattori	257
---	-----

Intergenerational justice and digital resources: is there a future for digital commons? by Mayo Fuster Morell	279
--	-----

Peasant farming: commoning through co-production for future generations by Luigi Russi	299
---	-----