

Contents

FOREWORD	3
ACRONYMS	7
GLOSSARY	9
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY AND FRA OPINIONS	11
INTRODUCING THE RESEARCH IN THE CONTEXT OF INTERNATIONAL AND EU LAW	23
Background to FRA's project on severe labour exploitation	23
Context and objectives of the project	24
Labour exploitation in the context of international and EU law	26
1 SEVERE LABOUR EXPLOITATION AND ITS FORMS	33
1.1. Forms and severity of labour exploitation	34
1.2. Criminalisation of labour exploitation and trafficking at Member State level	36
1.3. Workers accepting severe exploitative working conditions: the no-name problem	38
1.4. Exploitation of children	40
1.5. Conclusions	42
2 RISK FACTORS FOR SEVERE LABOUR EXPLOITATION AND RISK MANAGEMENT	43
2.1. Legal and institutional risk factors	44
2.2. Risk factors relating to the personal situation of the worker	45
2.3. Risk factors relating to the workplace	46
2.4. Risk factors relating to employers' actions	50
2.5. Conclusions	51
3 PREVENTION	53
3.1. Impact of public climate	53
3.2. Rights awareness and information provision in the country of work	55
3.3. Pre-departure programmes	57
3.4. Countering risks by accreditation and standard-setting	58
3.5. Labour exploitation, Member States' duty to respect workers' rights, and public procurement	60
3.6. Conclusions	61
4 MONITORING	63
4.1. Mandate to monitor the exploitation of workers	64
4.2. Particularly challenging situations for monitoring	66
4.3. Communicating with and providing information to workers	68
4.4. Detection of labour exploitation	69
4.5. Conclusions	70
5 VICTIMS' ACCESS TO JUSTICE	73
5.1. Situation of victims and their priorities	75
5.2. Who is a victim?	77
5.3. Regularisation of residence status and access to the labour market	78
5.4. Availability of targeted victim support services	80
5.5. Compensation and back-payments	81
5.6. Facilitation of complaints and the role of third parties	84
5.7. Role of the police	86
5.8. Police referring victims to support services	88
5.9. Prosecution and sanctions	88
5.10. Conclusions	90
CONCLUSIONS	93
REFERENCES	95
ANNEXES	97
Annex I: Methodology	97
Annex II: Relevant EU directives and regulations	103

