

CONTENTS

I. Proceedings	7
i. Opening address: Ms Jane Dinsdale, Deputy Director of Human Rights	7
ii. Introduction to the seminar on human rights and the police: Human rights, the rule of law and policing: Mr Ralph Crawshaw, general rapporteur	11
A. The rule of law	12
B. Limitations on rights; police functions; police behaviour and effectiveness	13
C. Social order and social justice	14
D. Policing and economic, social and cultural rights	15
E. Disorder and conflict	16
F. Concluding remarks	17
iii. Case-law under the European Convention on Human Rights relevant to the police: Mr Peter Duffy	21
A. Some important general principles in the Convention and its case-law	22
B. Liberty and security of the person with particular reference to arrest, interrogation and police detention	25
C. Right to respect for private and family life, searching of premises and access of persons held in custody to their families and lawyers	33
iv. Limits of discretionary power with regard to the use of force in policing, including issues relating to peaceful assembly	39
v. The European Convention for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment	46
A. An introduction to the European Convention for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment: Mr Fabrice Kellens, Administrator in the Secretariat of the European Committee for the Prevention of Torture (CPT)	46
B. The European Convention for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment and its relevance for the police: Mr Jim Murdoch, School of Law, University of Glasgow, Scotland	50
vi. Economic and social rights and the rights protected under the European Social Charter: Mr Régis Brillat, Head of the European Social Charter Section	62
vii. Migrants and national minorities and the police	67
A. Report on the work of the European Commission against Racism and Intolerance (ECRI): Mr Joseph Voyame, member of ECRI	67

B. Police training concerning migrants and national minorities: Dr Robin Oakley, Training and Research Consultant .....	71
C. The Framework Convention for the Protection of National Minorities and its relevance for the police: Mr Frank Steketee, Directorate of Human Rights .....	83
viii. Equality between women and men and its implications for the police ..	84
A. Women's rights: obstacles to their realisation and actions to take: Ms Catherine Paparriga-Costavara, barrister .....	84
B. Human rights – police and equality: Ms Anita Hazenberg, Director of the European Network of Policewomen .....	87
ix. Non-governmental organisations and the police : Mr Andrzej Rzepliński .	97
x. The workshops: background papers and reports .....	106
A. Workshop 1: Preparation of handbooks and visual materials such as posters .....	106
B. Workshop 2: preparation of a human rights video and accompanying materials for the police .....	108
C. Workshop 3: Other ideas arising from the seminar .....	114
xi. Overview of the seminar : Mr Ralph Crawshaw, General Rapporteur ..	115
II. Background documents .....	121
i. Contributions from country representatives .....	121
A. National policy and practice in Cyprus .....	121
B. National policy and practice in Denmark .....	122
C. National policy and practice with regard to training police in human rights matters in Finland .....	123
D. National policy and practice in France .....	124
E. Hungary : the Hungarian police and human rights .....	126
F. National policy and practice in Iceland .....	129
G. National policy and practice in Ireland .....	129
H. National policy and practice in Norway .....	138
I. National policy and practice in Poland .....	138
J. National policy and practice in Romania .....	140
K. National policy and practice in San Marino .....	142
L. National policy and practice in Spain .....	143

M. National policy and practice in "The former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia" .....	147
N. National policy and practice in Turkey .....	148
O. National policy and practice in Ukraine .....	151
P. United Kingdom : national policy and practice in Great Britain ....	152
ii. Contributions from representatives of international organisations and non-governmental organisations .....	158
A. Background paper presented by Amnesty International – Dutch section .....	158
B. European Council of Police Unions (ECPU) .....	161
C. The interdisciplinary research programme on root causes of human rights violations (PIOOM foundation) .....	162
D. International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) .....	163
E. United Nations Centre for Human Rights .....	164
F. United Nations Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Branch, United Nations Office at Vienna .....	165
G. Background paper on human rights training for the police: Dr P. van Reenen .....	165
III. Appendices .....	170
i. Programme of the seminar "Human rights and the police" .....	170
ii. List of participants/Liste des participants .....	173
A. Participants from member states of the Council of Europe/Participants des États membres du Conseil de l'Europe .....	173
B. Participants from countries with special guest status / Participants des pays ayant le statut d'invité spécial .....	175
C. List of experts / Liste des experts .....	176
D. Intergovernmental organisations / Organisations inter-gouvernementales .....	177
E. Non-governmental organisations and other organisations / organisations non-gouvernementales et d'autres organisations .....	178
F. Directorates of the Council of Europe / Directions du Conseil de l'Europe .....	179
iii. Selected Council of Europe human rights publications relevant to the police .....	181