

Contents

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| About the Centre for Social Justice  | 2         |
| Chief Executive's preface  | 3         |
| Working Group Chairman's foreword  | 4         |
| Members of the Working Group   | 5         |
| Special thanks   | 10        |
| Executive summary  | 13        |
| 1 State of the nation: social justice and homelessness in England today | 17 |
| 1.1 Homelessness in 2017 is rising   | 17        |
| 1.2 Drivers of homelessness  | 21        |
| 1.3 The current approach to homelessness                                       | 28        |
| 1.4 A new approach to ending homelessness                                      | 35        |
| 2 Reducing rough sleeping and chronic homelessness                      | 37 |
| 2.1 The current system   | 37        |
| 2.2 Scaling up Housing First in England  | 45        |
| 2.3 Improving the hostel system  | 53        |
| 2.4 Rapid rehousing for people with nowhere safe to stay                       | 54        |
| 2.5 Improving data collection  | 55        |
| 3 Preventing homelessness more effectively                              | 57 |
| 3.1 Reforming the homelessness legislation                                     | 57        |
| 3.2 Creating a cross-government strategy on ending homelessness                | 61        |
| 3.3 Developing local accountability within the context of devolution           | 61        |
| 3.4 The role of Universal Support  | 63        |
| 3.5 Interventions for groups that are more likely to become homeless           | 64        |
| 3.6 Support for families and young people                                      | 70        |
| 4 Improving access to affordable housing                                | 73 |
| 4.1 Increasing the supply of affordable accommodation                          | 73        |
| 4.2 Widening access to affordable accommodation                                | 74        |
| 5 Conclusion  | 83 |