

Contents

FOREWORD .....	3
GLOSSARY .....	9
KEY FINDINGS AND FRA OPINIONS .....	11
INTRODUCTION .....	23
1 PATHWAYS INTO SEVERE LABOUR EXPLOITATION .....	31
1.1. Role of personal networks .....	33
1.2. Role of recruitment agencies, gangmasters and intermediaries .....	34
1.3. Pick-up spots .....	37
1.4. Online recruitment and other means of looking for a job .....	38
2 WORKING AND LIVING CONDITIONS OF EXPLOITED WORKERS .....	41
2.1. Violations of labour law .....	42
2.2. Housing and living conditions .....	52
3 EMPLOYERS' STRATEGIES TO KEEP WORKERS IN A CONDITION OF EXPLOITATION .....	55
3.1. Violence and threats .....	56
3.2. Strategies to isolate workers and restrict their social contacts .....	61
3.3. Confiscation of passports and other strategies relating to documents .....	61
3.4. False promises and financial control .....	62
3.5. Strategies related to inspections .....	62
4 INTERVIEWEES' PERCEPTIONS OF RISK FACTORS FOR SEVERE LABOUR EXPLOITATION .....	65
4.1. Vulnerability linked to residence status .....	67
4.2. Economic need .....	70
4.3. Lack of knowledge of legal provisions and workers' rights .....	70
4.4. Lack of knowledge of migration rules and procedures .....	72
4.5. Lack of knowledge of the language of the country of work .....	72
4.6. Lack of effective inspections, checks and punishment by authorities .....	73
4.7. Other risk factors .....	75
5 EXPLOITED WORKERS' ACCESS TO JUSTICE .....	77
5.1. Exploited workers seeking support .....	77

5.2. Police supporting workers in gaining access to justice .....	82
5.3. Role of courts in granting access to justice .....	84
5.4. Interviewees' perspectives on their current situation .....	88
CONCLUSIONS .....	91
ANNEX I – METHODOLOGY .....	93
ANNEX II – FRA OPINIONS ON SEVERE LABOUR EXPLOITATION .....	100