

Table of contents

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY .....	1
INTRODUCTION.....	5
1. MEGATRENDS AFFECTING THE WELFARE STATE.....	7
1.1. Introduction .....	9
1.2. Demographic change.....	10
Demographic transition.....	10
Economic dependency and the welfare state: economic and social progress for all generations .....	12
Age distribution of poverty and challenges for the welfare state .....	15
1.3. Recent trends in employment and labour income inequalities.....	16
Toward a higher employment rate .....	16
Distribution of labour income .....	18
Evolving forms of work .....	19
1.4. Impact of technology and digitalisation.....	24
Employment effects: volume of jobs, sectors, occupations and skills dimension.....	24
1.5. Emerging trend: the impact of climate change, and managing the social implications of the green transition.....	27
Expected impacts of climate change on need for social protection and welfare systems .....	28
Employment effects.....	28
Energy poverty .....	29
Distributional impact and triple injustice .....	31
2. POLICY OPTIONS TO ADAPT THE WELFARE STATE IN A LIFE-COURSE PERSPECTIVE .....	33
2.1. Introduction: welfare provision in a life-course perspective.....	35
2.2. Early and family life.....	37
Introduction.....	37
Family policies.....	37
Younger adults.....	41
Policy options to improve social protection for early and family life .....	44
2.3. Working lives.....	44
Introduction.....	44
The protection role of the labour market framework.....	45
Access to social protection.....	46
Social investment measures during working life .....	49
2.4. Transition to retirement and old age .....	52
Relevance of the labour market framework to support social protection in old age .....	52
‘Classical’ social protection and long-term care for older people .....	54
Social investment and preventive welfare strategies.....	56
2.5. Conclusion: policy responses to megatrends throughout the life-course .....	57
3. FINANCING THE WELFARE STATE .....	61
3.1. The double dividend of the social investment measures and the need for new financing arrangements.....	63
3.2. A bird’s eye view of the current financing structure in the EU .....	65
3.3. Constraints on public financing.....	67
3.4. Toolkit of possible adjustments .....	69
The centrality of pay-as-you-go (PAYG) schemes .....	69
The role both of social contributions and of taxation .....	70
Revising personal income taxation.....	71
Fighting tax avoidance, tax evasion and tax fraud .....	77
3.5. A golden rule for social investment.....	78
CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS .....	81
ANNEX.....	88
REFERENCES.....	90