

How to navigate this document

Click on this icon to return to the contents.

Click on the arrows either side of the page number to navigate forwards and backwards through the document.

Click on these icons to go to relevant section.

Click on this icon to access Lighthouse Project fiche.
Document will open in a separate window.

Click on bold highlighted text to open fiche giving in-depth detail.
Document will open in a separate window.

Access to fiches requires a pdf reader.

Contents

Lessons from inspiring practices on VET and the Green Transition	4
New directions	4
Foundational elements	5
Emerging success factors and possible ways forward	6
Introduction	7
Background	7
The green transition and skills needs: taking stock	8
The European policy context	10
Purpose and structure of the Compendium	11
Who the Compendium is for and how to use it	12

Continued on next page

Contents continued

Inspiring practices for greener VET

13

	Understanding and identifying skills for the green transition	16		Developing the skills of teaching and training staff	42
	Understanding skills for the green transition	16
	Anticipating skills needs for the green transition	17
	Putting in place strategies and funding mechanisms	19		Activating VET learning venues	45
	Strategies, plans and development programmes	19
	Approaches to funding	23
	Creating greener VET programmes and qualifications	25		Focusing on green social goals	49
	Integrating green skills across all VET programmes	26		Providing opportunities for green skills development for disadvantaged communities	50
	Developing the technical skills required	29		Linking with civil society to develop co-curricular activities	51
	Greening courses for reskilling and upskilling adults	30
	Fostering links beyond VET: greening employment and green enterprise development	31
	Greening VET at sectoral and regional levels	32		Implementing networks and platforms for collaboration	52
	Supporting the greening of sectors	32
	Greening VET to support regional development	33
	Adopting new ways of teaching and learning	36
	Digital and blended learning	37
	Project-based learning	39
	Learning by developing digital products and services for the green transition	40
	Learning for entrepreneurship	40
	Learning through games	41
	How green are our learning resources?	41			